THE POSTAGE.

We would remind our readers of the mode that are already to do all kinds of JOB PRINTING at short notice. Our machinery is entirely new, and we have the style of doing it.

Mr. V. B. PALMER, the indefatigable Newspaper Agent in the city of Boston, New York and Philadelphia, has been appointed Agent for the Chicago Daily Tribune, and is authorized to receive subscriptions and contract for advertisements at the same rates required at this office. Mr. PALMER is a gentleman of high character, and we commend him to the favorable consideration of our friends.

☞ Our subscribers will confer a favor by giving immediate notice at the Counting Room of this office of every omission on the part of the Carriers to deliver their papers. He is the only way to insure the delivery of their paper.

APPEAL AGAINST THE AWARD IN OGDEN OR PROPERTY ON THE LAKE SHORE.—The following persons have appealed against the assessments made by the Commissioners in swearing property on the Lake shore, crossed by theIllinois Central Railroad: Carlton Jones, $1,41; Chicago Marine Fire Insurance Company, $750; Mary Clark, $950; J. T. Sommers, $40; Geo. Smith, and Timothy Wright, $156.

The Railroad Company have appealed against the awards made in the following parts: Joseph Johnson, $8,450; Lafin & Smith, 1,193; Elias Gurnie, $5,039; Bryant & Lathe, 1,979; Mr. Ladie, $3,000; Pusk & Abbee, $2,000; Pratt & Parker, $1,551; Mrs. Clark & E. Hubbeman, $3,502.

PARNELL'S FUNERAL.—Yesterday one of those useful citizens was carried to his long home, amongst the sympathies and sorrows of a fellow members, who attended his funeral dressed in their uniform. It was pleasing to perceive such a kindly feeling amongst the differences parties. The Chicago Benefit present a worthy contrast to some of the eastern companies, to delight more in feuds and broils than in aiding the property of citizens.

PORTAIT LECTURER.—We are glad to learn that the mechanic Institute are making arrangements to secure a course of lectures on popular chemistry. This is most desirable, and on a course will doubtless be highly appreciated as useful to many.

☞ As there appears to lack of means for a vestment in real estate in and about Chicago, those having it should not fail to notice the article that comes off this morning at Clark & Hastings's, No. 7 Clark st.

THE WEATHER.—Though in the shade during the whole of yesterday, the weather was bitterly cold, yet the sun was so powerful as to produce every appearance of a general thaw. Where or his rays could reach, the snow rapidly disappeared, and before night the spot of slushy mud had been much succeeded on by Sol's middle your money.

☞ The Knickerbocker, for January, is received. It is prefaced by an excellent engraving of the handsome editor—a daring innovation upon this iconoclastic Magazine—and we predict that Mr. Clark will be hung up from one end of the country to the other. We shall certainly hang him here.

For sale by Meller & Co., Tribune Buildings.
